SUBJECT: SECONDARY MARKEPLACE EDUCATION – GREENHILL & CO.

BACKGROUND

At the May 9, 2018 Board of Investments meeting, Greenhill & Co. ("Greenhill") was one of three vendors approved by the Board to provide private equity secondary sale and purchase consulting services to LACERA. Subsequently, LACERA selected Greenhill to explore the sale of legacy limited partnership interests based on pricing, depth of resources, and experience executing large transactions. Three representatives of Greenhill, Andy Nick, Wes Bender, and Neshmeen Faatimah, will present to the Board a summary of Greenhill and an overview of the secondary marketplace. They will also provide an update on the potential secondary sale transaction process, and at a high level, discuss LACERA's portfolio and pricing. Attached for your review is the presentation booklet.

2018 Expectation: GP Volume > $20B

- GP-led transactions accounted for $7B of 1H volume
- Significant transaction volume in the pipeline for 2H 2018

Greenhill

2018 Expectation: Pricing Moves Higher

- Average pricing across all strategies is consistent with 2017
- Buyout continued to lead all strategies with average pricing near par
- Venture pricing saw greatest increase due to newer vintages

2018 Expectation: More Sales of Newer Vintages

- 1/3rd of our client portfolios priced at par or higher in aggregate; each such portfolio had an average vintage of at least 2011
- Frequent premium pricing for newer funds makes the addition of these accretive to sale portfolios

Portfolio Composition

We have outlined the characteristics of the potential sale portfolio below

Fund Concentration

Portfolio & Transaction Process

Recommended Marketing Strategy

LACERA staff has identified a potential sale portfolio and bifurcated the list of funds into two categories: (i) funds which they have a stronger desire to sell and (ii) funds which they would be willing to opportunistically sell if pricing is very attractive

In order to maximize pricing and buyer participation, we recommend marketing the aggregate portfolio that LACERA staff has identified. This will allow for full price discovery and maximum optionality

LACERA will have the option to transact on more, less or none of the portfolio depending on asset-specific pricing received

| Strategy                           | # ofFunds | Net AssetValue |
|------------------------------------|---------------|--------------------|
| Buyout                             | 37            | $732,652,543      |
| Distressed                         | 6             | 205,113,179        |
| FoF / Secondaries / Co-investments | 2             | 153,561,206        |
| Subtotal                           | 45            | $1,091,326,928    |
| Small Interest Portfolio           | 44            | $55,424,157       |
| Total Sale Portfolio               | 89            | $1,146,751,085    |

We have aggregated the smaller / tail-end interests into a "Small Interest Portfolio", which would be marketed simultaneously with the broader portfolio (segmented by fund strategy) to maximize buyer participation <sup>(1)</sup>

Strategy Description & Rationale

- Funds with less than $5M of NAV comprise only 6% of the aggregate portfolio's NAV, but more than 60% of the total fund count
- Large portfolio buyers will be less keen on the smaller interests, while more targeted buyers may find the full portfolio too sizable and elect not to participate
- By marketing a small interest portfolio separately, LACERA increases the probability of selling the tail-end assets relative to marketing the portfolio as a single package, where the larger assets would be "cherry picked"
- The small interest portfolio will likely price at a more meaningful discount to NAV in isolation, though aggregate portfolio pricing will be higher with this strategy

Note: Capital Account Information provided by LACERA on June 8, 2018

(1) Small interest portfolio consists of all interests less than $5m in NAV except those that are a part of a GP family included in the core portfolio

Portfolio & Transaction Process

Preliminary Transaction Timeline

We anticipate being in a position to close the transaction during Q4
