

Federal Legislative Advocacy Services Responses to Written Questions

The following are the responses by LACERA to written questions received by the deadline of December 21, 2022 regarding the Request for Proposal (RFP) for Federal Legislative Advocacy Services.

1. Regarding Exhibit B (Minimum Qualifications Certification), should respondents provide written explanations under each minimum qualification bullet point in addition to signing the form?

No. Respondents do not need to provide written explanations for each bullet point. The form should be signed.

2. Is a respondent required to have an office in Sacramento?

No. Respondents do not need to have an office in Sacramento. They are required to have an office in Washington D.C. The documents related to the RFP for State Legislative Advocacy Services were erroneously posted in the section for Federal Legislative Advocacy Services. As of November 15, 2022, the correct documents have been posted.
